Rand Burkey

Why would a quiet Midwestern couple resort to hiring a team of people to kidnap and deprogram their oldest son from a group that seemed to teach “high moral values”? What signs did they see that caused them to take such actions? ## Stepping through Troubled Times

Our Christian Walk in the Midst of Political Turmoil

Jerry Nelsen

Stepping through Troubled Times is a cry in the wilderness. It cuts through the media hype and fear mongering to show why Americans must stand strong. Biblical truth reveals a clear parallel between political liberalism and the lost nature of man as evidenced by fear of global catastrophe and widespread religious hypocrisy. A subtle tyranny has grown out of failure to accept responsibility for our own actions and developed into a cry for government to provide all our needs. Dr. Nelsen focuses the Word of God upon both the political unrest and our personal failure of faith which has led America down the destructive path towards socialism.

Leah-Nicole W. Nagle

Nagle's open and honest approach brings stories to life and the joy and pain of motherhood straight to the heart. ## Hong Kong House

Four novellas about life at 169 Boundary Street. Hong Kong.

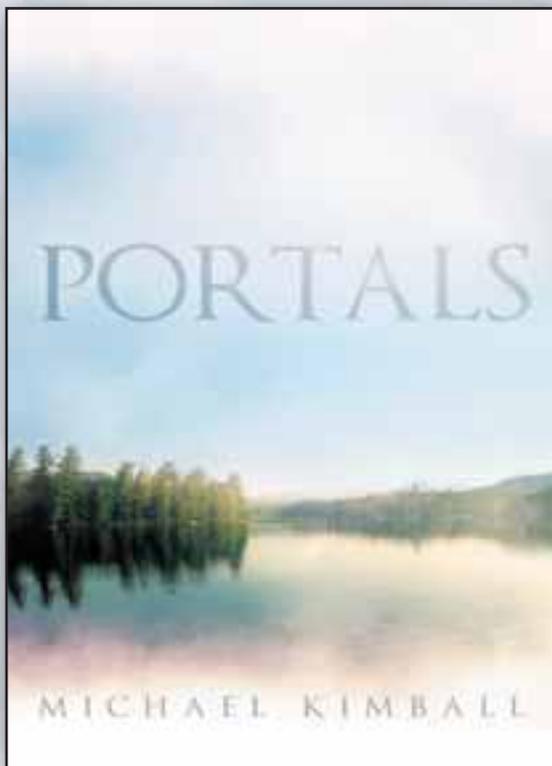

Marie Conyers McKay

Four novellas tell about the people who lived in the apartments, their hopes, dreams, fears, and lessons learned. Many different people lived in the three story building at 167-169 Boundary Street. Built in 1938 when an airport was opened on the beach near the walled city, it was first used as a police station with housing for British officers upstairs. The Japanese used it as a headquarters during their occupation. It was leased several groups, then finally to a mission group. It was torn down in 1999, and replaced by a 10 story building when a new airport was opened and the height restriction was canceled.

Portals

Michael Kimball

There are past events in the lives of almost all of us we wish we could change — especially if the event was tragic, resulting in the death of someone we loved. Portals at its core, explores a simple question: If I could change the past, would I? It sounds like a simple question. As the novel reveals, it isn't. Wrapped up in the eight small words encompassing this question is the sum of our personal world view, the lens through which we interpret the world around us. Key to our perspective is what we believe—or don't believe—about God.

The Four Dominions

All the Words of This Life

George N. Holman

God had me to write this first volume of The Four Dominions to show forth things that occurred in the King James Authorized Version of the Holy Bible and things that the Lord said would occur on Earth and in Heaven. These are recorded in encyclopedias and historical books as “past and current events.” The Lord had me research to get documentations as to when and where these things occurred to show forth that which it is written in Isaiah 52:15b—“For that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.”

Psalms and Proverbs for Dogs

Chris Nagy

Two amazing things are true about dogs: Number one, the love that your dog has for you is as close as you will come on this Earth to the love that Jesus Christ has for you: unconditional. Number two, the relationship between a dog and his master is strikingly similar to the relationship between a believer in Jesus Christ and God. Those two realizations got the wheels turning and were responsible for Psalms and Proverbs for Dogs. The parallels might just make you laugh while also making you contemplate your relationship with your dog and with your God.

William "Chris" Shelton

This is the inside story of someone who's been there, working with victims, but still had the love of Christ in him when dealing with perpetrators. There was never a task too small or too large for Chris to tackle if it helped to find justice for victims or their families. Chris stood for the children, and often the terms of justice were creative, sometime amazing, but always filled with his prayers. He took small pieces of evidence and worked with each piece until the justice system had the whole.

...They That Have Turned The World Upside Down..." Acts 17:6 KJV

A Study of the Book of Acts

Faye Callahan

This book gives a short biography of the people named in the book of Acts. Some were important in the spreading of the gospel, and some were determined that they would stop the spreading of the gospel. Some are Old Testament figures who were important in the history of the world. Three are crucial; without them, there would be no gospel. It is Faye Callahan's hope that people will realize that no price will be too great to pay to obey the Lord's command to bring others into the saving knowledge of His love.

A Life Committed to Its Intended Anchorage and Soar

The Harmony between Spiritual Principles and Sound Science

Donald L. Yates

Questions about the purpose of life for human beings are not new as book topics for nonfiction-category book titles. Nevertheless, author Donald L. Yates' interest in approaching this and similar, parallel questions is in investigating the links, ties, connections, and other illustrations of harmony, and balance between spiritual principles in their broadest sense and sound science. With such a discovery of connectedness and agreement between science and universal spiritual principles there are thus, the wider implications for humankind's purpose in living and for other, larger questions of humankind's behavior, actions, and existence.

A Pilgrim's History of the Rosary

Over the years, Greg Firstahl has given prayer to this writing. He has learned to walk with God and continually ask him to “keep working with me” (Mk. 16:20). For him, the Rosary has made him a better Christian, more Christ-like, a little more understanding about life and people. He looks at this writing the same way the little child in the Scriptures looked at his five loaves and two fish he gave the Lord. It is a small offering (John 6:9ff).

Being Christian

A Journey from the Boat to the Shore,
Culminating at the Cross

Chris Kugler

Being Christian will critically walk you through what it means to meet and engage the God of Jesus. It will then critically assess what the overarching theme of the Bible is, and exactly what kind of life the Bible is urging us to live. This book turns the volume up on the true message of the Bible. You will see that the Bible is not "basic instructions before leaving Earth," but it is a deeply profound, brilliant, provocative, engaging, and ultimately life-giving book. By the end, you will be challenged by what it means to be Christian.

Bible Matrix II: The Covenant Key

Michael Bull

God introduces Himself and defines the relationship, the methods, the possible outcomes, and the future. But God's covenants aren't just legal treaties; they're personal. Covenant is God's method of maturing man. Every covenant is a grand quest for the bittersweet wine of God's kingdom, but that cup is only for faithful servants, men who are willing to be broken first, like bread. This simple five-fold pattern finds its origin deep in the heart of the Trinity. It not only shapes the speeches of God, but it's also the structure behind every story in the Bible. The Covenant Key unlocks every door.

Fruit of the Spirit

Christian Works

Ralph W. Henson

The Fruit of the Spirit governs our works, not what we consider works. Everyone thinks of or talks about works, but not about the fruit of the spirit. With the fruit of the spirit, results are seen. It is not so much the method used as it is the accomplishments. The attitude we live by brings about the results. Following the fruit of the spirit ensures the proper method and the results God desires. If you have the fruit of the spirit, you will perform many good works. If you put on the armour of God, you will shun the works of evil.

Re-Created for Greatness

The Quest for the Promised Glory

Evangelist Francis Boafo

Many people seek God's heaven and His promised glory but are ignorant of the demand it places on them after their redemption. The attainment of the promised glory requires submission to God's dominion, power, and authority in Christ Jesus now. Your submission prepares and makes you ready for your eternal destiny in heaven, where the all-consuming presence of God dwells. The infinite Lord constrained Himself within our finite body to give you the opportunity to share His infinite nature and glory in heaven. What is your response? Are you correctly oriented toward this divine destiny?

Return To Jesus

A Vision of "Self-Giving Love"

Pastor Curt Moore

God's power has not been unleashed because God's people are not living a life of "agape." In John chapter 16 Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit in all of his power. In the book of Acts we see the Holy Spirit's arrival in chapter 2 and his power unleashed upon God's people throughout the remainder of the book. What was the main purpose for the power of the Holy Spirit being unleashed? The Holy Spirit was given to guide us in power as we lived out the example that Jesus had set for us.

Stepping Forward

A 39-Day Walk Through Ephesians

W. M. Lingenfelter

"Ephesians ... much read, much preached upon, little understood, and even less practiced. Sadly, this New Testament letter is so familiar that we often all but ignore it. And that's what author Mike Lingenfelter wants to change. Clearly, he understands that if we pause, take in and then practice what this letter prescribes, it will change the life and impact of church and believer alike... he has pleasingly carved our Biblical meal into 39 portions, each of which uncovers a life-giving, result-getting truth that corrects, directs, and empowers Christ-followers... I highly recommend this thoughtful work to you." - Dr. Bert Downs, Chancellor, Western Seminary, and Executive Director, Southwest Church Connection

The Catholic Faith and the Social Construction of Religion

With Particular Attention to the Québec Experience

Allan M. Savage & Peter Stuart

The intent behind this book is to provide grist for the mill for research students and other interested readers. Chapter one, by author Allan Savage, presents an understanding of the social construction of religious activity, which maintains that social construction of religion arises from a dialectical engagement within the world from a phenomenological philosophical point of view. Co-author Peter Stuart presents a classical and traditional point of view, and readers expecting academic accord between the authors will be disappointed.
